Ignorance is night.

Surviving the night

Denay,

I have really enjoyed being in H.R. with you. You have been a great friend. I hope that we will be friends for a long time to come. I had all the memories of the times we were together as a group treasured today so I can remember them always. Have fun this summer and stay out of trouble. Good luck in the future and ~~may~~ God bless you always. See ya. Love

Hey Denay!
Thanks for the (cynical!)
notes in Mrs. Reed's notebook!
(I might just show up!
at one of those parties!
(maybe beyond)
-all my love!

Seniors

Years from now when we're squared away will we really care about what went on in that circle of friendship?

Elegy for Doug

The leaves are down and piled high, leaving bare branches reaching toward the sky in supplication.
A cold November wind blows past the faces pressed flat against the pane.
And the butterflies are nowhere to be seen,
although their beauty flashes
in the meadows of my mind, and I remember well their likeness as they blended in kaliedescopic splendor with the flowers.
They will be with us always,
the butterflies of summer,
and perfume of flowers will remain,
filling our senses for all time, reminding us how blessed we are to have known them.

M. P. Aleman

Now you are ready for the most difficult and the most fun of all.

To fly straight up
and know the meaning of kindness and love.

Time

Ticking away the moments that make up a dull day
 You fritter and waste the hours in an off hand way
 Kicking around on a piece of ground in your home town
 Waiting for someone or something to show you the way

Tired of lying in the sunshine staying home to watch the rain
 You are young and life is long and there is time to kill today
 And then one day you find ten years have got behind you
 No one told you when to run, you missed the starting gun

And you run and you run to catch up with the sun, but it's sinking
 And racing around to come up behind you again
 The sun is the same in a relative way, but you're older
 And shorter of breath and one day closer to death

Every year is getting shorter, never seem to find the time
 Plans that either come to naught or half a page of scribbled lines
 Hanging on in quiet desperation is the English way
 The time is gone the song is over, thought I'd something more to say.

Debra Weldon 1975 Lilac Princess

Princess Debbie beams after being named to reign as Lewis & Clark's 1975 Lilac Princess.

The topic of this year's coronation speeches was "The Role of the Educated Woman in the 70's".

Surprise overwhelms Debbie as Mr. Anderson does the honors.

L.C. has crowned an ecstatic Lilac Princess.

TO THE CLASS OF 1975:

You have set a fine example for Lewis and Clark and our underclassmen in the basic philosophy which all of us have adopted, that is:

WHAT WE DON'T HAVE IN NUMBERS
WE MAKE UP FOR IN QUALITY,

You have maintained a high quality that is so rich in tradition and blessed with an excellent faculty and student body.

GOOD LUCK AND GOD SPEED!
